Talk with the Pastor May 17, 2008

TWO FORGETTABLE DAYS

There are two days in every week that we should not worry about. One of these days is yesterday - with its mistakes, shortcomings and faults. It is past and there is nothing we can do to bring it back. Whatever happened yesterday, we can not change it. What is done is done. It is forever beyond our control.

The other day we should not worry about is tomorrow - with its promises, prospects and possibilities. But tomorrow is not yet and we'll never know what it will eventually bring forth.

This leaves us just one day - and that is today. This is actually all we have, and virtually all we need, to live full and significant lives. It is the remorse and bitterness that come as a result of dwelling on the failures of yesterday and the needless anxiety and worry about what may happen tomorrow that rob us of the joy and excitement of living in the beauty of the present that is today.

So forget about yesterday's failures and do not borrow from tomorrow's troubles. Ask God to help you live one day at a time for as Jesus says: "Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." Matthew 6:34.

~~Simeon Rosete, Jr.
