Talk with the Pastor June 28, 2008

OFFENDING THE LITTLE CHILDREN

An old woman was noticed to be picking up something in the street - a poor slum street. The policeman on the beat noticed the woman's action and watched her suspiciously. Several times, he saw her stoop, pick up something, and hide it in her apron. Finally, he went up to her and with a gruff voice and threatening manner demanded, "What are you carrying off in your apron?"

The timid woman did not answer at first, whereupon the officer, thinking that she must have found something valuable, threatened her with arrest. The woman opened her apron and revealed a handful of broken glasses. "I just thought I would like to take it out of the way of the children's feet," she said.

Should we have more among us of this timid little woman who cared about what hurts "children's feet"?

One of the most arresting statements of Jesus when He was on earth was concerning the offending of children. He said "Whoever causes any of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were drowned in the depth of the sea." Matthew 18:6

Let us make sure not to offend any of these little ones and not cause them to stumble by our example or our words.

~~Simeon Rosete, Jr.
