Talk with the Pastor
June 21, 2008

CREATOR DESIGNS, MAKES, AND FIXES

An American missionary to the Philippines was vacationing in Baguio and while there, he took home a souvenir from one of the City's workshops/giftshops -- a pure silver money clip embellished with a distinctive design. The missionary carried that clip for the next 24 years. One day, it finally broke as he tried to slip a few bills into it. He took the two pieces of the money clip back to the silver shop in Baguio. One workman asked if he could help and the missionary explained his predicament and laid the pieces into his outstretched hand.

After examining the pieces for a minute or so, he looked up at the missionary and said, "I designed this clip. I was the only one to make this design. I made all of these that were ever made."

"Can you fix it?", the missionary asked.

To which the man replied, "I designed it. I made it. Of course I can fix it!"

The spiritual application is obvious. Perhaps we feel broken. Our case seems to be hopeless. We fail everytime we try to live our lives after Jesus. But as this story so powerfully illustrates, the God who designed us and made us has also the power to fix us regardless of the kind of disrepair we are in. All we need to do is go to Him. He'll do the rest.
