MISSION STATEMENT

The Central Filipino Church of Seventh-day Adventists exists to help prepare a people for the soon return of Jesus Christ.

Talk with the Pastor August 16, 2008

DO IT ANYWAY, IN THE BEST WAY YOU KNOW HOW

He was not too well-educated and his manner was somewhat crude and rough, but he became a Christian and was on fire for the Lord. He constantly pestered his pastor to help him be of some genuine service to his church. In desperation, the pastor gave him a list of ten people, saying: "These are members who seldom attend services; some are prominent men of the city. Contact them, any way you can and try to get them to be more faithful. Use the church stationery to write letters if you want, but get them back in church."

He accepted the challenge with enthusiasm. About three weeks later, a letter arrived from a prominent physician, whose name was on the list. In the envelope was a one thousand dollar check and a note:

Dear Pastor:

Enclosed is my check to make up for my missed offerings. I'm sorry for missing worship so much, but be assured I am going to be present every Sunday from now on and will not by choice miss services again.

Sincerely,

M. B. Jones, M. D.

P. S.

Would you kindly tell your secretary that there is only one 't' in 'dirty' and no 'c' in 'skunk'?

Sometimes, even as we bungle along doing work for the Lord, God takes our best efforts when they are done in the best way we know how and with the purity of motives and sincerity of intentions, and blesses them, for the ultimate praise and glory of his name.

So let's do it. Let not the fear of failure paralyze us in our tracks. Do the good you want to do for the Lord and for His people and we can be sure He can take care of the rest.

~~ Simeon Rosete, Jr.
