Talk with the Pastor August 30, 2008

JUDGING GENTLY

Often in life we find ourselves passing judgments on the actions of people. And then we realize when the truth comes to light that we have been so terribly wrong. And we feel so bad and terribly guilty. Because we can't read the heart, we don't know the motives from which people's actions spring. That's why only God can judge. Because only He is able to know what's in a person's mind. An anonymous writer penned these words:

Pray, don't find fault with the man that limps
Or stumbles along the road.
Unless you have worn the shoes he wears
Or struggled beneath his load.

There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt
Though hidden away from view.
Or the burden he bears placed on your back
Might cause you to stumble too.

Don't sneer at the man who's down today
Unless you have felt the blow
That caused his fall or felt the shame
That only the fallen know.

You may be strong but still the blow
That was his if dealt to you
In the selfsame way, at the selfsame time
Might cause you to stagger too.

JUDGING GENTLY . . . continued

Don't be too harsh with the man that sins
Or pelt him with word or stone
Unless you are sure - yea, doubly sure-
That you have no sins of your own.

For you know, perhaps,
If the tempter's voice should whisper as soft to you
As it did to him when he went astray
It might cause you to falter too.

So let's not judge because we ourselves may be doing the same thing if we were in the other person's shoes. It would be best if we simply prayed for them and offered them our support and encouragement. Our world could be a better place for all.

~~Simeon Rosete, Jr.
